Comfort

*There is a tower of strength
For you and me --
'Tis that which we call faith
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us,
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light --
It is the shore.*

FRANKLIN LEE STEVENSON

James Floyd Newberry, the son of the late John Alfred and Emma Jane Andrew Newberry, was born on October 17, 1923 in Leota, Missouri. He entered into eternal rest November 14, 2008 at the age of eighty-five years.

On March 17, 1945, Mr. Newberry was married at Salem, Arkansas to Violet Alice Dougherty. He was a veteran having served with the United States Air Force. Mr. Newberry was a lifetime member of the Curry Street Church of Christ.

He is survived by his wife, Violet Newberry, of the family home; one daughter, Alice Faye Vandergriff and husband, Hassell, Salem, Arkansas; three brothers, Thomas Newberry and wife, Betty Jane, Odessa, Missouri, Benjamin Newberry and wife, Alta, West Plains, Missouri and Earl Newberry, Lakewood, Colorado; one sister, Wilma Wolverton and husband, Joe, Blue Springs, Missouri; and several nieces and nephews.

His parents, two sisters, Faye Rickett and Pauline Cherry and two brothers, Carl Newberry and Sherman Newberry, preceded him in death.
